The Paralegal Association of Rochester, Inc. is proud to host its seventh annual charity golf tournament. Proceeds from this year's event will benefit Lawyers for Learning, which is a section of the Monroe County Bar Association committed to connecting members of the legal community who volunteer as tutors and mentors at Rochester City School District's Adlai E. Stevenson School 29, located at 88 Kirkland Road. School 29 is an elementary school with grades Pre-K through 6 and hosts a large number of special education students.

Ways to support:

1. Register for the event by visiting www.rochesterparalegal.org/events.
